

ANNOUNCEMENTS – April 29, 2018

Cereal Drive - The cereal drive to benefit the Northampton Survival Center will go from April 22nd through Sunday, May 13th, so be sure to bring in those boxes of cereal and don't forget cereal for babies also. We have a small start to go around the sanctuary so there is a large need for cereal for today and the next two Sundays!!!

Student Exam Snack Boxes

Following the service this morning UMW will be in Fellowship Hall packing exam snack boxes for our CUMC members who will be taking exams over the next couple of weeks. Please feel free to help pack the boxes following this morning's service.

Church Fair

Sunday, May 20th at 11:15am following morning worship there will be an important meeting concerning the church's fair. Everyone interested, please plan to attend.

Parsonage

A call for help is coming from the church Trustees to those who don't mind or enjoy inside house simple painting. There are a few areas of painting that we can help with to help finish up this undertaking and get the house ready for renting. If you have some time to spare to help with this project - please see Pam.

May/June Newsletter

The Newsletter is scheduled to be ready the end of this week. Please be sure you have submitted any church related committee notes or personal notes you would like included. Deadline Tuesday, May 1st.

Martha Kellett / Shirley Smith

Both of these loving members of CUMC has recently fallen at their homes. Martha broke her hip socket ball - had surgery – will be moving to rehab at Linda Manor Care Facility, 349 Haydenville Rd., Leeds, Ma 01053.

Shirley sprained her ankle - is at home at Loomis House, 298 Jarvis Ave., Apt 127, Holyoke, MA 01040. We have a card for each that you can sign during fellowship time today or you can definitely send a card of your own, or do both!! Thank You from Joe of CUMC Member Care.
